Notes and Quotes

Just a few notes regarding parish leadership for the year ahead ~

Thank you to the following people for coming forward to be on parish councils: Jane Belongia, Bill Neering, and Karen Lefevre for Holy Trinity; Kris Thompson, Josh Kozlowski, and Cynde Pitroski for St. Patrick; and Ann Lotter for St. Anthony. One more member for St. Anthony's parish council could still be added. Thank you also to the two new trustees: Margie Daul for Holy Trinity and Shane Senn for St. Anthony. At Holy Trinity we are saying thank you and goodbye to Gail Eichhorn who has been the faith formation coordinator for the past two years. May she be blessed as she continues in parish ministry in Two Rivers as well as in her educational pursuits.

All of the different ways in which people serve in the parish are extremely valuable. This has always been true but it's especially true today with so many parishes like ours having to be linked with one priest. Consider also the fact that limited budgets present us with the challenge of doing many things with a small number of paid staff. As I'm sure I've said before, a healthy, vibrant parish depends on you - the lay faithful. The degree to which you are interested in and committed to your Catholic faith will translate into blessings for the parish.

Cardinal John Henry Newman spoke of this when he said: "In all times the laity have been the measure of the Catholic spirit..." Another line from Newman which is good meditation for anyone: "O my God, what a great and awful difference is there between what I am and what I ought to be!"
